"A Heart Cry For Revival"

Psalm 85

Welcome to worship at Concord as we have a fresh start of the restart we previously started. If that sounds confusing it is because confusion is our constant condition during a pandemic. Perhaps a simpler way to express it is "three steps forward and two steps back". Or is it three steps back?

God is good all the time. He strengthens us by stretching us. To my knowledge there are no new COVID cases in Concord this week. Our present plan is for on-campus Bible study classes for adults and children to resume on Sunday, August 2. Children's Church will resume Thursday night, July 23, and will also be back in session on Sunday, July 26 at the 11:00 worship time. The situation is fluid, but we are pressing on.

This weekend I am preaching from Psalm 85. My topic is "A Heart Cry For Revival". Psalm 85:6 says "Will you revive us again that your people may rejoice in you?" The people were in the Promised Land. They were returning from Babylon and rebuilding a city. But what good is it to have a land full of people who are not full of the Lord? We should ask that question of ourselves.

I. A History of Revival. (vs 1-3)

II. A Hunger For Revival. (vs 4-8)

III. A Heart For Revival. (vs 9-13)

Revive us again, O Lord!

Your Servant in Christ,
Bro. Monte

JESUS PAID IT ALL, O PRAISE THE ONE

Verse 1
I hear the Savior say
Thy strength indeed is small
Child of weakness watch and pray
Find in Me thine all in all

Chorus

Jesus paid it all
All to Him I owe
Sin had left a crimson stain
He washed it white as snow

Verse 2

Lord now indeed I find
Thy pow'r and Thine alone
Can change the leper's spots
And melt the heart of stone

Chorus

Verse 3

And when before the throne
I stand in Him complete
Jesus died my soul to save
My lips shall still repeat

Chorus

Sin had left a crimson stain
He washed it white as snow
He washed it white as snow
He washed it white as snow

Oh praise the One who paid my debt
And raised this life up from the dead
(Repeat)
